DEFINITIONS

Building Drain. That part of the lowest horizontal piping of a drainage system that receives the discharge from soil, waste, and other drainage pipes inside the walls of the building and conveys it to the building sewer, beginning five (5) feet outside the inner face of the building wall.

Building Sewer. The extension from the building drain to the public sewer or other place of disposal, also called house connection.

Condominium. Means real property having more than one dwelling unit and the ownership of which consist of separate, divided fee simple estates in individual air space units, together with an undivided fee simple interest in the common elements appurtenant to such units.

Condominium unit. Means a form of property ownership of airspace and is eligible for individual sewer use charges as a unit.

Dwelling. Means any building, structure, or other housing accommodation that is wholly or partly used or intended to be used for living or sleeping by human occupants, but excludes temporary housing.

Dwelling Unit. Means one room or rooms connected together for residential occupancy and including bathroom and kitchen facilities. If there is more than one meter for any utility, address to the property, or kitchen; or if there are separate entrances to rooms which could be used as separate dwelling units; or if there is a lockable, physical separation between rooms in the dwelling unit such that a room or rooms on each side of the separation could be used as a dwelling unit, multiple dwelling units are presumed to exist; but this presumption may be rebutted by evidence that the residents of the dwelling share utilities and keys to all entrances to the property and that they (A) share a single common bathroom as the primary bathroom, or (B) share a single common kitchen as the primary kitchen.

Townhouse. Means a multi-unit dwelling in which the ownership of each dwelling unit consists of a separate fee simple estate on an individually platted lot, together with an undivided fee simple interest in the common elements, if any.

Townhouse unit. Means that part of a townhouse constituting a single dwelling unit.

Wastewater. Liquid and water-carried industrial wastes and/or sewage from residential dwellings, commercial buildings, industrial and manufacturing facilities, and institutions, whether treated or untreated, which are contributed to the POTW. Groundwater, surface water, and storm water shall not be intentionally combined with domestic or industrial wastewater in the sanitary sewerage system.
